Olympic Mascots

Olympic mascots have been part of the games since 1968, and are usually based on animals that live in the host country. Imagine you have been asked to design a new mascot for the Olympic Games. Would you base it on an animal or something else? Try out your designs below.
The design on the medals changes for every Olympic Games. The designs may include something connected with the nation hosting the games, or something to do with the origins of the games. Design your own medal for the Olympic Games below.
Here is the 2016 Olympic logo. Do you like it? Can you do a better job? Try designing your own logo for the 2016 Rio Olympics.
The Olympic Torch

A new torch is designed for each Olympic Games. Design your own Olympic torch below.
The logo used on Team GB Uniforms for the 2016 Olympic Games shows a lion, a symbol of Britain, along with the Olympic rings and the team name. Try designing your own logo, to be included in the uniform worn by Great Britain’s athletes.
Team Uniforms

Design a shirt to be worn by athletes from a country of your choice. Think about something that will represent that country; try and include it in your design.
Design a shirt to be worn to support your chosen country. Think about what colours, images and words might be used in your design.
Many different souvenirs will be available to help celebrate and remember the 2016 Olympic Games. What would you sell to commemorate the Games? Try out some of your own designs.
Design a Mug

Design a mug for the Olympic Games. Think about any lettering, graphics and colours you might use. Will your mug include Olympic logos or symbols? Will it be a modern or traditional design?
